STIPULATION FOR DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

Mary Rediske (now known as Mary Hall), Special Administrator of the Estate of Walter W. Rediske, on behalf of the Beneficiaries of the Estate including Mary Elizabeth Rediske and minors W.A.R., W.J.R., and E.J.R. (hereinafter “Rediske”) and defendants Honeywell International Inc. and Texas Turbine Conversions, Inc. hereby stipulate and agree that Rediske's actions against defendants Honeywell International Inc. and Texas Turbine Conversions, Inc. shall be dismissed with prejudice, with each party to bear its own costs and attorneys' fees. This dismissal extends to all claims that Rediske made or could have made against Honeywell International Inc. or Texas Turbine Conversions, Inc. in each of the consolidated cases, including, but not limited to, claims brought on behalf of the minor statutory beneficiaries of the Rediske Estate.

In support of this stipulation for dismissal, and pursuant to District of Alaska Local Rule 68.1, the parties submit the following:¹

- 1) Judgments for Change of Name issued by the Superior Court, Third Judicial District at Kenai, changing the names of the Special Administrator and the beneficiaries of the Estate effective February 2, 2018, as follows: Mary Elizabeth Rediske to Mary Elizabeth Hall; EJR to EJH; WJR to WJH; and WAR to WAH (Attachment A); and
- 2) Orders Approving Minor Settlement issued by the Superior Court, Third Judicial District at Kenai on July 8, 2021 pursuant to Alaska Rule of Civil Procedure 90.2, approving the settlements on behalf of the minor statutory beneficiaries with defendants Honeywell International Inc. and Texas Turbine Conversions, Inc., and approving the disbursement of settlement funds. (Attachment B). Due to the confidential terms of these settlements, the amounts have been redacted.

¹ In accordance with the rules for ECF filing, initials of minors have been substituted for the minors' names.
